

About Ligori & Ligori

When Keith Ligori founded his firm, Ligori & Ligori, his goal was to stand out from the competition through authenticity, going the extra mile, and being there for his clients no matter what. In the last 20 years, Keith has done just that.

Our team is unafraid to push the limits, going to court to fight for clients and always maximizing the value of their cases. Each team member brings a unique skillset to the firm that elevates the client experience.

The firm feels like family, because it is! Keith is proud to work with the people he loves most: his wife, Georgeann, daughter, Meaghann, and son, Nick, all of whom work in different departments of the firm. It's truly 'all hands on deck' at Ligori & Ligori!
